1. [ ] LIAISON Received a call from Hans Binnendijk, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, who requested a short unclassified paper on China arms sales, specifically what they produce and what they have been selling abroad. Binnendijk also referred to the Washington Post article about a CIA report on Soviet arms sales and asked for a copy of this report. Subsequently, Binnendijk called again and said he was preparing a paper about the PRC and Taiwan and wanted to know if we could say anything unclassified about the Intelligence Community's view of the possibility of a PRC invasion. I called him back and read him a brief unclassified statement which had been prepared by NFAC.
